

25 YEARS SERVICE

DECEMBER 2011

loy·al·ty (loi-uhl-tee)

noun, plural

1. the state or quality of being loyal; faithfulness to commitments or obligations.
2. faithful adherence to a sovereign, government, leader, cause, etc.
3. an example or instance of faithfulness, adherence, or the like: a man with fierce loyalties.

We are very proud at Allied to celebrate an outstanding 25 years service this year from 3 members of staff: Bryan Penny, Chris Toop and Paul Belsham.

All three have shown dedication, commitment and loyalty to Allied over the years and have helped shape the company into what we are today. As a token of our gratitude, they were given gifts to reflect this.

A presentation by our Joint Managing Director, Michael Viney, was attended by all staff at our Head Office.
